The Advent Wreath

This is the season of new beginnings! As we enter December and the holiday season, we begin a new year on the church liturgical calendar, beginning with Advent. The church new year comes a whole month before we welcome 2025, which gives us time to reflect on our spiritual journeys before all the noise and merriment of New Year's Eve. Many of us will follow the old tradition of lighting Advent candles on a wreath, often placed as a centerpiece on the tables where we gather as a family to eat, while others may have it on their kitchen counters or a stand. Although the Advent wreath with different colored candles only gained popularity in the United States around the 1930s, it has become one of those traditions that mark our time of waiting and anticipation.

Since there is no official procedure for how an Advent wreath works, you may see different colored candles, a different number of them, and other stories told as each candle is lit. You will often find four candles around the wreath, three purple and one pink, with a white candle in the middle. The first purple candle is lit on the first Sunday in Advent, another purple candle on the second Sunday along with the first, then the pink candle on the third Sunday along with the first and second, and then a purple candle on the fourth Sunday in Advent along with the others. On Christmas Eve, the center white candle, often called a Christ candle, is lit. Different traditions have meanings for each candle, such as Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love, Prophecy, John the Baptist, the Magi, and Mary, or Expectation, the Annunciation, Proclamation, and Fulfillment.

The purpose is to retell the nativity story and our redemption through God's grace in the incarnation. At the beginning of the church year, we are reminded that God has given each one of us a new beginning through the birth, life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We are given a new lease on life, no matter what came before. The old year has passed, our sins forgotten, and we are given new life as disciples of Christ. Take time over Advent to reflect on where you are on your spiritual journey and prepare for a new beginning as we remember that the Light of Christ came into this world long ago as a baby in a manger. And remember, no matter where we have been or what we have done, Christ's gift of a new beginning is always there.

Then, as we say goodbye to 2024 and usher in the new year, let us all make resolutions that actually reflect the faith we have in Jesus as our Lord and Savior. Perhaps we can rededicate ourselves to becoming active members of the Body of Christ in the church. We may commit to a ministry that will shine Christ's love worldwide. Perhaps we can remember each and every day that we are all on a journey to eternity and begin to live today like the children of God we are called to be.

However you choose to end the old year and begin the new, we wish you a year of joy, knowing that God journeys with us through every step of life and that the Peace of Christ remains in your heart. Praise be to God for New Beginnings!

May you have a Spirit-filled Advent, a merry Christmas, and a happy and blessed new year!

Children & Youth Gift Collection

There are still a few names left for the Christian Education Committee's collection for the Schuylkill County Children and Youth. The names (along with ages and gift information) are posted on tags on the nursery window in the back of the sanctuary. Please pick a child tag and write your name with the corresponding number on the sign-up sheet. Please wrap the gifts and place them in a garbage bag with the child's tag attached. Place all gifts in the back of the sanctuary. All gifts are due back to church by Sunday, December 8. If you have any questions, please speak to Amy Zimmerman.

to share, but it is not necessary to bring anything other than yourself! Come enjoy the fun as we welcome our special visitor, Santa! Kids will receive a goodie bag. If you have any questions, please speak to any Sunday School teacher or Board of Christian Education Chairperson, Laura Carll. (snow date for the party is Sunday, December 15)

Prayer Shawl Committee

The Prayer Shawl Ministry will meet the second Tuesday of each month from 10am-12noon in the conference room. The next meetings will be held Tuesday, December 10, 2024 and January 14, 2025. If you are interested in knitting and/or crocheting, we can hook you up! If you know of someone who could use a prayer shawl, please contact the church office.

Bethany Children's Home Special Offering

On Sunday, December 15, we will collect a special offering for Bethany Children's Home which is located in Womelsdorf. Bethany serves troubled youth between the ages 13 and 19. These are young people who for one reason or another cannot live with their own families. Most have been abused or neglected and do not have a concept of what a stable two parent loving family can be. Bethany provides a safe, healthy, caring home for these children and tries to instill the values they will need to succeed in life. Please help us to remember the children of Bethany through prayer and monetary donations. These children who have not experienced much love or received many holiday gifts prior to arriving at Bethany can certainly benefit from our help.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life." -John 3:16

The year has flown by so fast- it went by like a snap! December 8 is the annual Sunday school Christmas party after church, with fellowship, food, songs and a special visitor! Please join us after church for some fun and fellowship! Also, the Schuylkill County Children and Youth gifts are due back to church December 8th. Happy Holidays!!

Christian Education Secretary,
Amy Zimmerman

December 8th, 2024- Schuylkill County Children and Youth gifts due back

AV System Volunteers

We are still looking for some additional people to help run our sound and video equipment on a Sunday morning! Please let us know if you would be willing to help. We will then figure out a good mutual time to "train" those who are interested! Ideally, we will get a few people interested, and then sign up for Sundays either on a weekly or monthly basis, somewhat like the lectors.

Altar Prep Volunteers

We are still in need of altar prep volunteers. Everyone is welcome! It will be a rotation schedule on a weekly basis. You can sign up for one week or multiple weeks. Your assistance is needed to change the altar paraments, make sure altar flowers are changed and the oil candles are filled. "Training" will be provided! It's a minimal commitment, but a great help in keeping our services running smoothly. If you would like to learn more about how you can help, please speak to Kelly Palerino.

Heating Assistance Program

With cold weather knocking at the door, residents who struggle with their home heating bills are reminded they can now apply for assistance from the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP).

LIHEAP is a federally funded program that helps individuals and families pay their heating bills through home heating energy assistance grants. It also provides crisis grants to help in the event of an emergency or if a resident is in danger of losing his or her heat due to broken equipment, lack of fuel or termination of utility service.

The income eligibility guidelines for LIHEAP are set at 150% of the federal poverty income level. For example, the gross income limit for an individual is $22,590 and for a family of four it is $46,800. Residents may apply for LIHEAP online at compass.state.pa.us

KEEP YOUR HOLIDAYS MERRY AND BRIGHT

Look Upon Love

Let us then meditate upon the Nativity just as we see it happening in our own babies. I would not have you contemplate the deity of Christ, the majesty of Christ, but rather his flesh. Look upon the baby Jesus. Divinity may terrify people. Inexpressible majesty will crush them. That is why God took on our human flesh and blood, that God should not terrify us but rather that with love and favor God would console and comfort us.

—Martin Luther

Christian Symbol

ADVENT COLORS — One of the season's symbolic colors is blue, representing hope. During Advent, we wait in hope to celebrate again God's coming in human form. We also look forward in hope to Christ's coming in glory at the end of the age. Purple symbolizes the royalty of Jesus, the coming Prince of Peace, and the penitence with which we receive him. Some congregations also use pink or white candles in Advent wreaths, with pink symbolizing joy and white symbolizing the Christ Child.

A Glorious Hope

Let us today go down to Bethlehem, and in company with wondering shepherds and adoring Magi, let us see him who was born King of the Jews, for we by faith can claim an interest in him, and can sing, "Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given." Jesus is Jehovah incarnate, our Lord and our God, and yet our brother and friend; let us adore and admire. ...

Let us reverently bow before the holy Child whose innocence restores to [humankind] its ancient glory; and let us pray that he may be formed in us, the hope of glory.

—C.H. Spurgeon, Morning and Evening

*"The world can't save itself.
That's the message of Christmas."*

—Timothy Keller

STEWARDSHIP

Tithes and Offerings. We hear those words all the time, but they sound a lot like the same thing. But there is a difference between them that stems from biblical principles. In the Old Testament, a tithe was giving one tenth of everything back to God, because all that we have is a gift from God. The first tithe was when Abraham gave one tenth of all he had to Melchizedek as recorded in Genesis 14:19-20. Jacob gave the second tithe, as told in Genesis 28:20–22. As the people of Israel grew in their relationship with God, giving one tenth back to God became simply a way of life and doing so was even written into their law in Leviticus 27:30. An offering on the other hand, was any additional gifts or sacrifices given to God above the giving of the tithe. The tithe, giving one tenth of income or possessions, was the baseline. Offerings were gifts above and beyond in appreciation for the blessings God has given to us.

The New Testament also talks about giving back to God through our tithes and offerings, with even more emphasis on offering ourselves as a living sacrifice to God. There are over one hundred passages in the Bible about giving, so there is no doubt that we are encouraged “...to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.” (Hebrews 13:16) But how many people actually tithe to the church? In reality, not many. One study showed that only about 10-25% of church members tithe, or give ten percent of their income back to God. This includes what is given to the church and to other charitable organizations outside the church. The research also shows that Christians give on average 2.5% of their income today, which is down from 3.3% that most Christians gave during the Great Depression.

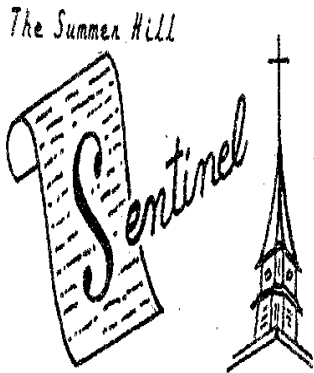

How much people give back to God depends on many variables, and ultimately how much you give should be a matter you resolve between you and God. Our church does not track individual giving except for tax reporting back to the giver, and the Pastor never ever sees or knows how much any individual gives, so this is not about making a certain grade or passing any type of test. However, Christ does call us to live generously and as your faith and relationship with God continues to grow, you will be empowered to share more of what God has given you with others. Sharing what you have may come in the form of financial gifts to the church, or from sharing your time or gifts, or most likely a mixture of both. And the amount of time and treasure one is able to share will certainly change over time due to other responsibilities and abilities. The question we each must ask ourselves is, are we moving in a direction back toward God and doing what is pleasing to God, or are we moving away from God and doing what is pleasing to ourselves?

Moving in the direction back to God with our tithes and offerings may not be as difficult as you think. Often the best way is to slowly budget your time and resource towards the goal of sharing more of what God has blessed you with. Find your yearly household income on the chart below, then move to the right to find the amount you have budgeted to give weekly. Look at the top of that column to see the percentage you are giving back. Consider increasing your weekly gift as you move towards the goal of giving back to God a tenth of what he has given you. It may take some time, but have faith and live generously, as God has been generous with you.
